CHARLES UNIVERSITY

Univerzita Karlova (Czech Republic)

The Charles University in Prague with its 17 Faculties and approximately 50.000 students represents the 5th most demanded University within the Erasmus+ program. Its quality of education meets the highest European standards and thus opens up a wide range of opportunities for student placement and mobility, for instance under the EU's Erasmus program. With a wide range of courses taught in English, Charles University provides stimulating opportunities for students from abroad in Bachelor's, Master's and PhD programs.
