

FACULTY OF HUMANITIES

Dean's Office

The Dean's Office represents the Faculty externally through the executive committee made up of the Dean, Vice-Dean and Dean of Studies and exercises the leadership role within the Faculty. The Dean's Office is thus responsible for all tasks at faculty level these include, for example, strategic decisions such as target agreements, as well as the administration of human resources and equipment. The Dean's Office prepares the resolutions of the Faculty Council and ensures that they are implemented. In addition to administrative duties, the Dean's Office is also responsible for conducting appointment processes.
