

FACULTY OF HUMANITIES

Officers and helping Hands

The staff in the FHW and the student representatives on the Faculty Council wish you every success with your studies! Sometimes success can only be achieved if we manage to overcome difficulties and obstacles along the way. At times studying influenced by events in our lives, which might limit, obstruct or even completely bring to a standstill our ability to work. These include unpleasant events such as our own physical or mental limitations or illnesses, but also pleasant ones, such as starting a family.

Such upheavals and lasting restrictions are neither rare nor unusual - and we want to react to this and help you overcome them. Admittedly this will also necessitate you building up your own networks, organizing teamwork, articulating difficulties and accepting support.
